- United States Dollar
- Canadian Dollar

 - 7.4.2. We are not responsible for any delay or error which arises from incomplete, unclear, inconsistent or mistaken instructions which you give us. Where you give us inconsistent instructions (for example, where the receiving bank's NSC or BIC and its name and address details do not match) we shall not be liable for acting in accordance with any part of those instructions.
 - 7.4.3. Further details of available payment services on your account are provided in our Fee Booklets, on our standard application forms, at any of our branches, online at aibni.co.uk and on our electronic channels.
 - 7.4.4. You should ensure that at all times the available cleared balance in your Account is sufficient to meet all payments. Your "cleared" balance is the amount in your Account that you can draw against without incurring interest on uncleared balances. Unless otherwise agreed by us, you may not make payments from your Account in reliance on the balance in another account.
 - 7.4.5. Where the available cleared balance on your Account is insufficient, but we nonetheless allow the payment, you will be liable to pay debit interest. This will not commit us to paying any further items to such an amount in the future no matter how frequently we do it. For details of debit interest, see Condition 12 below.
- 7.5. Regardless of the issue of liability, where you notify us of an incorrectly executed payment we will make immediate efforts to trace the whereabouts of the defective payment and inform you of the results of such efforts. We may charge you for doing this. If we decide to charge you for this, we will tell you what the charge will be at the time you ask us to recover the payment. If you provide information as well as the payment detail we ask for, we will only be responsible for making the payment in line with the payment details we asked for.
- 7.6. If we are unable to recover the payment you may write to us to request from us any relevant information we may have available in relation to the Payee in order for you to pursue recovery of the funds directly from the Payee.
- 7.7. You are not entitled to a refund from us if you have selected a Payee in error from your trusted beneficiaries list through the internet banking services we make available to you and the Payee's Payment Service Provider receives the funds. If that happens, you must ask the Payee directly to return the payment to you. We will, however, make immediate efforts to trace the payment and give you notice whether this has been successful.
- 7.8. We may, but shall not be obliged to, operate from time to time such security procedures as we consider appropriate including making call backs to you or your authorised representative. We reserve the right to delay or not permit a payment where we are suspicious that the security of the payment may be compromised or that it is unauthorised or fraudulent. We shall not be liable for any delay or failure in making any payment as a result of such reasons.
- 7.9. You must not use your Account for illegal purposes. We may refuse to execute a transaction if we have reason to believe your account is being used illegally or attempts are being made to use your Account illegally. Please see Condition 7.8 for more details about our right to refuse to execute transactions.
- 7.10. Once received by us for execution, payment instructions are irrevocable. For example, an International Payment or an online payment cannot be cancelled or amended.
- 7.11. Payment by us against Uncleared lodgements in your Account will not give rise to any obligation on us to do so on any subsequent occasion.
- 7.12. No delay or omission on the part of the Bank in exercising any right or power under these Conditions or under any specific terms shall impair such right or power and any single or partial exercise thereof shall not preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Bank in respect of these Conditions and under any specific terms are cumulative and not exclusive of any right or remedy provided by law.
- 7.13. We accept no liability for system or machine failure, industrial dispute, strike or other circumstances beyond its control.

8. Payments – unauthorised or incorrectly executed

- 8.1. If an unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment has been made from your Account you must notify us without undue delay and, in any event no later than 13 months after the date the payment was taken from your Account. If we fail to execute a payment correctly and you are eligible for a refund, we will without undue delay, put your Account back into the position it would have been in had the payment been correctly executed and reimburse you for any charges you have incurred and interest you have been charged by us for the incorrect execution.

- 8.2. If you disagree with a transaction we have made on your Account and we refund this transaction, you must pay us back any refund you have claimed and we have the right to take this money from your Account if following investigations, we find that you:
 - 8.2.1. Agreed the transaction;
 - 8.2.2. Have acted fraudulently or with Gross Negligence;
 - 8.2.3. Did not tell us about the claim in line with these Conditions;
 - 8.2.4. Do not give us any information we ask for about your claim; or
 - 8.2.5. Do not send us the refund application form within 14 days from the date you first told us about the claim.

9. The Application of Foreign Exchange Rates to Transactions

- 9.1. Any transaction to or from your Account in a currency other than the currency in which your Account is denominated, will require a currency conversion using a foreign exchange rate.
- 9.2. We publish our Standard exchange rates on our Website on a daily basis. These rates are used for all currency conversions up to a Standard exchange threshold value. This Standard exchange rate threshold value is subject to change at any time. We can amend its Standard exchange rates immediately and without notice.
- 9.3. Where an exchange rate from one currency to another is required, the appropriate Standard exchange rate applicable at the time that we receive the payment instruction will be used.
- 9.4. In the case of amounts up to and including our Standard exchange rate threshold value we reserve the right to process payments, received after the relevant Cut-off time on a Banking Day, on the actual Banking Day of receipt (as if it was received before the Cut-off time) and to apply the Standard exchange rate applying on the actual Banking Day of receipt to the payment.
- 9.5. Negotiated exchange rates are normally agreed on the Banking Day on which a payment instruction is deemed to have been received by us. In cases where a negotiated rate has been agreed in advance of the delivery of a payment instruction with us, you must provide the details of the rate and our reference. In the case of an outgoing International Payment this should be quoted on the paper application form or instruction. (Important: Any pre-agreed exchange rate is a legally binding agreement with you to complete the respective foreign exchange transaction). If you need to cancel an agreed rate you should advise us immediately. You may be liable for any losses uncured by us due to your failure to utilise the agreed exchange rate and we reserve the right to charge your Account with the costs in such circumstances.
- 9.6. If you instruct us to make an International Payment in a currency other than the currency of the Payees' account, the intermediary/Payee's bank may convert the payment in to the currency of the Payee's account. We cannot accept any responsibility for the exchange rates applied by other banks.
- 9.7. For amounts over our Standard exchange rate threshold value, for foreign currency payments to your Account, we will attempt to contact you to negotiate a rate before we make the conversion.
- 9.8. The exchange rate used for an International Payment by the Bank on the day of processing the transaction, will be quoted on the payment advice sent to you by post (except where you elect to receive by fax).

10. Joint Account/Partnership Account

Where your Account is a Joint Account the following applies:

- 10.1. Payments from or instructions on a Joint Account will only be made in accordance with the mandate governing the operation of your Account.

Warning: If you give us instructions on a Joint Account in accordance with the latest Mandate, payments are permitted to be made from a Joint Account on the signature of some but not all of the Joint Account Holders, money in the Joint Account may be withdrawn or paid away without the knowledge of all Joint Account Holders.
- 10.2. The Joint Account Holders will be jointly and severally liable for any balance owing including accrued interest and all applicable charges on the Joint Account and for any debits arising from payments by any party to the Joint Account made in accordance with the latest Mandate.
- 10.3. On the death of any Joint Account Holder any money standing to the credit of the Joint Account will, subject to compliance with any statutory requirements, be paid to or to the order of any surviving Joint Account Holder(s) without prejudice to our right of set-off or any other of our rights acquired by operation of law.
- 10.4. Correspondence and notices in relation to the Joint Account will be sent or served by us to the address provided by the Joint Account Holders. Any such correspondence and/or notices so sent or served will be deemed to have been received by or served upon all of the Joint Account Holders.
- 10.5. Joint Account Holders may authorise any third party to operate the Joint Account in accordance with our procedures.
- 10.6. Notwithstanding any dispute between Joint Account Holders, we will continue to rely on existing Mandate unless and until we receive a new Mandate from the Joint Account Holders.
- 10.7. We may close a Joint Account acting in accordance with existing signing instructions.

11. Credit Interest

Credit Interest is not payable in any currency on an Account.

12. Debit Interest

- 12.1. Overdraft facilities are not available on your Account.
- 12.2. Where your Account goes into an unauthorised overdrawn position, the debit interest rate accruing (referred to as the 'Debit Interest Default Rate') is calculated daily at the Reference Interest Rate linked to your Account plus 12%. Where there is no Reference rate available for a particular currency a rate of 12% is calculated daily. Debit Interest is charged monthly or quarterly in arrears (depending on your Account) for the number of days your Account is overdrawn. We will give you at least 14 days' notice before we deduct interest from your Account.

13. Set off Interest

A facility incorporating set-off interest is not offered on your Account.

14. Fees and Charges

- 14.1. Fees and charges applicable to your Account are contained in the guide section at the beginning of this brochure.
- 14.2. For all other charges, please refer to our 'Price List - International Transactions' available on our Website.
- 14.3. If the fees or charges on your Account change, we will communicate notice of the change to you in writing at least two months' prior to the change becoming effective. On receipt of such notification you may terminate this Agreement in accordance with condition 15 (Closure of your account) below.

15. Closure of Account

- 15.1. Your Account has no minimum term and remains open until it is closed by you or us in accordance with these Conditions.
- 15.2. You may close your Account at any time by giving reasonable notice to us in writing.
- 15.3. If your Account is closed, you must immediately pay all sums owing on your account. Interest fees and charges will be charged up to the date of closure.
- 15.4. There may be a time when we ask you to close your Account. If we decide to do this we will, wherever possible, give you at least two months' notice in writing unless there are exceptional circumstances. These include, but are not limited to the following:
 - 15.4.1. On your bankruptcy or you enter into a voluntary agreement with your creditors;
 - 15.4.2. If you can no longer manage your financial affairs or you die;
 - 15.4.3. If any representations, warranties or statements made by you or an authorised user to us in connection with the Account are breached or are untrue in any material respect;
 - 15.4.4. If you commit any serious or repeated breach of these Terms & Conditions;
 - 15.4.5. If you are in breach of any other agreement with us;
 - 15.4.6. We have reasonable grounds to believe that You are no longer using the Account and it has not been active for 6 months or more;
 - 15.4.7. You act, or are suspected of acting, fraudulently against Us or any other party;
 - 15.4.8. To enable Us to comply with any law, regulation or good practice, or
 - 15.4.9. For any other valid reason, provided that the closure of this Account is a proportionate and reasonable response to the underlying reason.

16. Death or Incapacity of the Account Holder

- 16.1. All payments made by us on your Account after your incapacity or death or bankruptcy or liquidation but before we have written notice thereof will be valid and binding upon you and your successors and estate.
- 16.2. When we become aware of the death of an Account holder, the action it takes will depend on whether your account is in a sole name (sole trader) or joint names (partnership).
 - 16.2.1. Personal Customer – Your account can be closed by the executors or administrators of the estate once we receive letters of probate or administration. If you have a joint account, the balance and interest accrued will be paid to the surviving parties or can be continued in the name of the surviving parties.
 - 16.2.2. Sole Trader: Upon notification of your death we will freeze your Account. Your account can then be closed by the executors or administrators of your estate on receipt by us of letters of probate or administration.
 - 16.2.3. In the case of a partnership, the death of one partner will cause the partnership to automatically dissolve which means that it will no longer exist, unless there is a partnership agreement in place which contains provisions to the contrary. You should therefore provide us with a copy of any partnership agreement which affects you. Where a partnership consists of only two partners, the death of one of the partners will cause the partnership to be automatically dissolved. Your account will therefore cease to operate from the date of death.

17. Variation of Conditions

- 17.1. These Conditions shall continue to apply to your Account unless and until altered by us in accordance with this Condition.
- 17.2. We may alter these Conditions from time to time. Alterations will normally be caused by changes in the cost of providing the service, changes in, or our requirement to conform with, general banking practice, expected or actual changes in legal or other requirements affecting us, promotional reasons, any system or product development or to enable us to conduct our business in a prudent or competitive manner or other good reasons. We may also change these Conditions to make them clearer or more favourable to you or to rectify any errors identified after we have given these Conditions to you.

- 17.3. Unless we are permitted by law to give you shorter notice, we will notify you in writing at least two months in advance of any alteration to these Conditions except for changes to Reference interest and exchange rates which we can change immediately and without notice.
- 17.4. If you are not happy, you have the right to close your Account with us. At any time up to two months from the date of the notice, you can, without notice, close your Account without having to pay any extra charges or interest for doing this. When you receive this notice, you can close your Account in line with Condition 15.4, as long as you have paid all the amounts you owe. However, if you continue to hold your Account after this time, we will consider you to have accepted the relevant changes.

18. No Waiver

If we choose not to exercise our rights in relation to or enforce any Condition, or we delay in exercising our rights in relation to or enforcing any Condition, this will not affect our rights to:

- (a) subsequently exercise our rights in relation to or enforce that Condition; or
- (b) exercise our rights in relation to or enforce any of the remaining Conditions.

No single or partial exercise of any of our rights provided under or partial enforcement of the Conditions or by law shall prevent or restrict us from further exercising or rights under or enforcement of that or any other Condition.

19. Severance

If at any time any provision of the Agreement is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired.

20. Normal Currency

The currency of your Account will be agreed at account opening.

21. Our Liability to you

Liability Generally

- 21.1 To the extent permitted by law and except as otherwise set out in these Conditions we shall only be liable to you for delay, mistake or omission on that part or that of our agent(s) in carrying out your payment instructions for an amount up to and including face value of your instruction together with any related interest and charges. We shall not be liable to you for any other claims, demands, losses, cost, liability or expenses (including legal costs). For the avoidance of doubt we shall not be liable to you for any indirect, consequential, special or economic loss or damage as a result of any delay, mistake or omission on our part or that of our agent(s) in carrying out your payment instruction. This Condition does not affect your rights under the Payment Services Regulations 2017, or any other law, relating to unauthorised transactions or incorrectly executed transactions (for example, instructions not followed correctly or transactions not carried out properly). We will not be liable for system or machine failure, industrial dispute, strike or other circumstances beyond our control.
- 21.2. We may use any intermediary or agent bank and clearing and settlement systems of our choice to execute any payment. The routing and channel(s) used by us is entirely at our discretion. If we provide you with services which are not covered by the Payment Services Regulations 2017 (including, but not limited to, cheques and other paper transactions) we will not be responsible for any delay or failure caused by any intermediary or agent bank or any clearing or settlement system.
- 21.3. We are not liable for any loss or damage arising from any refusal to carry out any instruction for a payment from your Account arising from any refusal to carry out any instruction for a payment from your Account where we are entitled to do so in accordance with these Conditions or by law, or for any loss or damage you may suffer as a result of the way in which any such refusal is communicated to you or to others.
- 21.4. We will not be liable if, despite all our efforts, we are prevented (directly or indirectly) from meeting any of our responsibilities under these terms and conditions because of:
- 21.4.1. A fault which has happened in any system used to carry out a transaction;
 - 21.4.2. An industrial dispute (for example, a strike); or
 - 21.4.3. Anything outside our or our agents' or subcontractors' control.

22. General

- 22.1. We may, in addition to any other similar right we may have, at any time, without notice to you, set off any credit or debit balance in your Account against any debit or credit balance on any other account held by us in your name.
- 22.2. You will be deemed to have received any demand or notice sent by us to you by post to the last address notified by you two Banking Days after dispatch by post, or immediately upon hand delivery.
- 22.3. We may record or monitor phone calls between you and us so that we can check instructions and make sure that we are meeting our service standards and to ensure the security of our business, and that of our customers and staff and for the purposes of training our staff.
- 22.4. You are required to inform us in writing at least seven days in advance of any change in your name, address or telephone number, authorised signatories or other contact details. Please note that we may require you to provide and /or confirm details of any such changes in such form as we may require (e.g. change of address form).
- 22.5. You must ensure that arrangements for receiving mail at your address are secure. Failure to comply with this Condition may result in you being liable for any misuse of your Account.
- 22.6. You will be deemed to have received any demand or notice sent by us to you by post to the last address notified by you two Banking Days after dispatch by post, or immediately upon hand delivery.

- 22.7. We do not provide advice or indicate suitability of products for a person's or a business' particular circumstances. You should always obtain independent professional advice on such matters.
- 22.8. Notwithstanding any other provision in these Conditions, we may take whatever action we consider appropriate to meet our obligations, either in Northern Ireland or elsewhere in the world, relating to the prevention of fraud, money laundering or terrorism and to the provision of financial and other services to persons who may be subject to sanctions. This action may include, but is not limited to, investigating and intercepting payments into and out of your Account and making enquiries to establish whether a person is subject to sanctions. This may result in a delay or failure to execute instructions received from you or in the receipt of Cleared funds. You acknowledge and agree that, to the extent permitted by law, we shall not be liable for any loss, damage or other liability suffered by you or any third party which arises as a result of taking such action.

23. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These terms and conditions are governed by the laws of Northern Ireland and in the event of a dispute the courts of Northern Ireland have exclusive jurisdiction.

24. Language

These terms and conditions are written in English and all our communications will be in English.

3. How we collect information about you

We collect personal information from you, for example when you open an account; make a deposit; apply for products and services; use your credit or debit card; complete transactions; or look for advice. We also collect information through our website, apps, social media, discussion forums, market research and CCTV footage. We will sometimes record phone conversations and we will always let you know when we do this.

We may collect information to identify you through voice, facial or fingerprint (biometric data) recognition technology. We always ask for your consent to do this.

Our websites use 'cookie' technology. A cookie is a little piece of text that our server places on your device when you visit any of our websites or apps. They help us make the sites work better for you.

When you apply to us for products and services, and during the time you use these, we carry out information searches and verify your identity. We do this by sending and receiving information about you to and from third parties including credit reference agencies and fraud prevention agencies. We and these agencies may keep records of our searches whether or not the product or service goes ahead.

4. How we keep your information safe

We protect your information with security measures under the laws that apply and we meet international standards. We keep our computers, files and buildings secure.

When you contact us to ask about your information, we may ask you to identify yourself. This is to help protect your information.

5. How long we keep your information

To meet our legal and regulatory obligations, we hold your information while you are a customer and for a period of time after that. We do not hold it for longer than necessary.

6. Meeting our legal and regulatory obligations

To use your information lawfully, we rely on one or more of the following legal bases:

- performance of a contract;
- legal obligation;
- protecting the vital interests of you or others;
- public interest;
- our legitimate interests; and
- your consent.

To meet our regulatory and legal obligations, we collect some of your personal information, verify it, keep it up to date through regular checks, and delete it once we no longer have to keep it. We may also gather information about you from third parties to help us meet our obligations. If you do not provide the information we need, or help us keep it up to date, we may not be able to provide you with our products and services.

7. Consent

Sometimes we need your consent to use your personal information. With direct marketing for example, we need your consent to make you aware of products and services which may be of interest to you. We may do this by phone, post, email, text or through other digital media.

You can decide how much direct marketing you want to accept when you apply for new products and services. If we ever contact you to get your feedback on ways to improve our products and services, you have the choice to opt out.

When we use sensitive personal information about you, such as medical or biometric data, we ask for your consent. Before you give your consent, we tell you what information we collect and what we use it for. You can remove your consent at any time by contacting us.

8. How we use your information

We use information about you to:

- provide relevant products and services;
- identify ways we can improve our products and services;
- maintain and monitor your products and services;
- protect both our interests;
- meet our legal and regulatory obligations; and
- decide and recommend how our products and services might be suitable for you.

To provide our products and services under the terms and conditions we agree between us, we need to collect and use personal information about you. If you do not provide this personal information, we may not be able to provide you with our products and services.

We analyse the information that we collect on you through your use of our products and services and on our social media, apps and websites. This helps us understand your financial behaviour, how we interact with you and our position in a market place. Examples of how we use this information includes helping protect you and others from financial crime, offering you products and services and personalising your experience.

We may report trends we see to third parties. These trend reports may include information about activity on devices, for example mobile phones, ATMs and self-service kiosks, or card spend in particular regions or industries. When we prepare these reports, we group customers' information and remove any names. We do not share information in these reports that can identify you as a customer, such as your name, or account details.

We sometimes use technology to help us make decisions automatically. For example, when you apply for a loan online. Before we make a decision, we automatically score the information you give us, any information we already hold about you, and any information we may get from other sources.

9. Your information and third parties

Sometimes we share your information with third parties.

For example to:

- trace information; and
- protect both our interests.

In order to process your application we will supply your personal information to credit reference agencies (CRAs) and they will give us information about you, such as about your financial history. We do this to assess credit worthiness and product suitability, check your identity, manage your account, trace and recover debts and prevent criminal activity.

We will also continue to exchange information about you with CRAs on an ongoing basis, including about your settled accounts and any debts not fully repaid on time. CRAs will share your information with other organisations. Your data will also be linked to the data of your spouse, any joint applicants or other financial associates.

The personal information we have collected from you will be shared with fraud prevention agencies who will use it to prevent fraud and money-laundering and to verify your identity. If fraud is detected, you could be refused certain services, finance or employment.

Further details of the CRA's and fraud prevention agencies, and how they process your information can be found at our websites.

We expect these third parties to have the same levels of information protection that we have.

We also have to share information with third parties to meet any applicable law, regulation or lawful request. When we believe we have been given false or misleading information, or we suspect criminal activity we must record this and tell law enforcement agencies, which may be either in or outside the UK.

10. International transfers of data

We may transfer your personal information outside of the United Kingdom (UK) and the European Economic Area (EEA) to help us provide your products and services. We expect the same standard of data protection is applied outside of the UK and EEA to these transfers and the use of the information, to ensure your rights are protected.

11. Your personal information rights

You will find information about your rights, when they apply and our responsibility to you on our website's Frequently Asked Questions section.

You can exercise your rights by calling into a branch, using our social media channels, phoning or writing to us. Further information and our contact details are available on our websites at aibni.co.uk/data-protection or www.aibgb.co.uk/Data-protection

Additional information

(1) Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £85,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

(2) General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers a maximum of £85,000 per bank. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance a depositor holds a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £20,000, he or she will only be repaid £85,000.

This method will also be applied if a bank operates under different trading names. AIB Group (UK) p.l.c. also trades under AIB (NI) in Northern Ireland and Allied Irish Bank (GB) and Allied Irish Bank (GB) Savings Direct in Great Britain. This means that all eligible deposits with one or more of these trading names are in total covered up to £85,000.

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as "temporary high balances" are protected above £85,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits connected with certain events including:

- certain transactions relating to the depositor's current or prospective only or main residence or dwelling;
- a death, or the depositor's marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity;
- the payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>

(3) Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of £85,000 applies to each depositor.

However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £85,000.

(4) Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London, EC3A 7QU, Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100, Email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your eligible deposits (up to £85,000) within 20 working days until 31 December 2018; within 15 working days from 1 January 2019 until 31 December 2020; within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2023; and within 7 working days from 1 January 2024 onwards, save where specific exceptions apply.

Where the FSCS cannot make the repayable amount available within 7 working days, it will, from 1 June 2016 until 31 December 2023, ensure that you have access to an appropriate amount of your covered deposits to cover the cost of living (in the case of a depositor which is an individual) or to cover necessary business expenses or operating costs (in the case of a depositor which is not an individual or a large company) within 5 working days of a request.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>.

Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by Deposit Guarantee Schemes. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your bank will also inform you of any exclusions from protection which may apply. If deposits are eligible, the bank shall also confirm this on the statement of account.
